Petitioner argues for a change in his sentence because his attorney allegedly provided ineffective assistance of counsel.

Such a claim requires a showing that the allegedly ineffective assistance prejudiced the petitioner. See United States v. Manzo, 675 F.3d 1204, 1209 (9th Cir. 2012). The court finds that Petitioner has failed to make this showing. The court was fully aware of Petitioner's cooperation and none of his counsel's other
